"A Generous Law"
Deuteronomy 15:1-18

Main Idea: Choose to be generous and change a life.

1. How would the practice of canceling debt every seven years care for the poor in the land?
2. Why is it important for the Israelites to understand it is God's land to give and not their land?
3. Why is the practice of a sabbatical year a step of obedience and faith (Leviticus 25:1-7)?
4. How do we know that generosity is not in our nature? How do we overcome our lack of generosity?
5. How would you argue against a theology that says God's plan for everyone is to be rich?
6. Why would anyone want to stay a bond slave? What does it mean to be a bond slave of Christ (Romans 6:22)?
